Notorious Kentucky Desperado nearly fifty delegates and the launching of a movement to organize a rival teamsters' union. Captured on Virginia Soil After Hour's Fight.

(By Associated Pross.)

KNOXVILLE, TENN., August 9.—A special from Middleboro, Ky., to The Journal and Tribune says that Frank Ball the notorious mountain desperado who recently escaped juil at Richmond Ky., was captured late this afternoon by Sheriff Rice Johnson and posse after battle, which raged for one hour. Wednesday night Ball was located in a log cabin near Rose Hill, Va., and Sheriff Johnson and sixteen deputies started out to capture him. Reinforcements were to capture him. Reinforcements were sent for, as it was feared that Ball's friends and relatives might go to his aid. Nearly thirty members of the Mideboro militia company volunteered as deputies, and left by special train. This morning, under a truce, Sherint Johnson went to the cabin and demanded Ball's surrender. This he refused to do, Late this afternoon fire was owned on the surrender. This he refused to do, Late this afternoon fire was opened on the cabin by the sheriff's forces, and after John Lee, one of Ball's men, had been killed Ball surrendered. Ball will, be taken to the Kentucky penitentiary at Frankfort to-night. The house in which Ball took refuge was riddled with bullets from the guns of the posse.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, August S.—An attempt made late to-day to adjust the differences between six railroad companies having ferminals in this city and the crews of the railroad tugboats operating in New York harbor ended in a failure. The representatives of the Central Railroad or New Jersey, Delawre, Lackawanna and Western, Erie, Baltimore and Ohio, New York Centrul and Lehigh Volley Railroads, which were most seriously affected by the strike, declined to accede to the demands of the striking crews for an increase in wages of $5 to $10 a month, and declared that they would fill the places of the strikers with new men. The movement of freight of the roads named from their terminals in New Jersey and Staten Island to New York City was badly crippled, and many carloads of freight were stalled in the yards on the west bank of the Hudson River. It is foared that if the strike continues there will be a heavy loss to shippers of fruits and vogetables and other perishable freights, and much inconvenience to New Yorkers.

MYSTERIOUS DEATH OF FRIEND OF PRESIDENT

Investigation Begun at New York Hotel by Order of Coroner.

NEW YORK, August 9.-A mystery surrounding the death of Mrs. Augusta Groupe, owner of a great sugar plantation near Havana, Cuba, and said to be a friend of Mrs. Nicholas Longworth and President Roosevelt, caused Coroner Harburger to notify the police of the Tenderburger to notify the police of the Tenderloin station and to start an investiga tion at the Belvidere House. Mrs. Groupe, with her ausband, stayed there for ten weeks. Not the least peculiar feature of the strange case occurred at the very beginning, when late this afternoon a man who seemed greatily excited hurried into Coroner Harburger's office.

He begged for a private interview, and then introduced himself as a newspaper writer from the South. The exact details of his information the Coroner refused to give out at present, on the ground that if they are true, their publication would tend to defeat the ends of justice.

The story was impressive enough, howjustlee. The story was impressive unough, however, to cause the Coromer hurriedly to call up Captain O'Brien, of the Tenderloin station, and tell him he had heard somebody had committed suicide by cutting his throat at the Belvidere.

Manager Groil, of the hotel, said that Mrs. Groupe, fifty-one years old, had died early to-day of natural causes. He would not say what they were, but declared that she was attended last night by a physician.

CLOSING SCENES

Nays-Messrs. Curtis, Dickerson and Don Leavy-3.

Much Routine Work. Reports from the Water Committee were passed without discussion, as were formal reports from the Committee or Health.

The report of the Committee on Grounds and Buildings, appropriating $999 to be used in fitting up and properly furnishing the offices of the Board of Health, was unanimously adopted.
The Committee on Ordinances, Charters and Reforms reported that they had duly considered a communication from opposition to the establishment of a plea-sure park for colored people near Oak-wood Cemetery, and recommended the adoption of the following resolution: "That the Virginia Passenger and Power Company be, and are hereby, ear-nestly requested to refrain from opening any such park in the neighborhood of Oakwood or any other city cemetery.

The Gas Plant Matter.

The report of the Joint Committee on Finance and Light, recommending the acceptance of the bid of Hunt and Company to investigate and recommend plans for the rehabilitation of the Gas Works; for the sum of $2,500, came up. President Peters said that after consultation with the City Attorney he had decided to vote that under the ordinances, the proposed expenditure being as much as $2,600, the recommendation of the committee must lie on the table, and then on motion of Mr. Miner, the matter was laid on the table, which simply means that the whole question of the reimbilitation of the Gas Works goes over to the new Council.

Closing of Pawnbrokers. The ordinance recently passed, by the Board of Aldermen that pawnbrokers shops must be closed from 8 P. M. to 7 A. M. daily on all days from Monday to Friday, and from 12 P. M. on Saturdays to 7 A. M. on Mondays, was after discussion concurred in.

Under a suspension of the rules several ordinances, calculated to strengthen the hands of the Board of Health in its new work were passed. One of them the hands of the Board of Health in its new work were passed. One of them provides that measies and tuberculosis shall be added to the list of diseases to be placarded on the houses in which they exist, and that there shall be no further placarding of typhoid fever.

Under a further suspension of the rules several unimportant resolutions were rushed through. The Closing Scenes.

Under the call for special business, Mr. Don Leavy tried to get a reconsideration of the vote by which the building inspector proposition was defeated Monday night, but there were many protests, and Mr. Don Leavy's effort failed. Thus another heavy matter goes over to the new Council.

This seemed to wind up the business of the old Council and then the members became a little hilarious. A short, infororder, and it was so declared.

When the recess was ended, MessraMills and Pollock offered the following, which, after a few "parting words" by Mr. Pollock, was adopted by a rising

ONE COMMITTEE MEETS. James River Committee Decides Not to Sell Sand.

affection.

The Common Council of to-day then adjourned to meet no more, perhaps.

Not to Sell Sand.

Of the four committees—James River Improvement, Polics, Schools and Elections and the Streets—scheduled to meet last night, the first was the only one that had a quorum, and was able to hold its last meeting.

There was only one matter of importance that was brought before the attention of the committee—that in regard to the petition of Mr. James T. Sloan, that he be allowed to purchase the sand that is being drawn out of the river in Fulton and dumped, in a sink at. Lester ton and dumped, in a sink at. Lester Street, in order to relies it above the level of the high tide. Mr. Sloan ordered 15c of the high tide. Mr. Sloan ordered 15c a cuble yard. It was shown that the sand is needed by the city for the purpose for which it is now being used, and that if is preferable not to sell the sand, but rather to exchange it for an equal amount of dirt. The committee decided, however, that, as it was on the ove of its going out, it did not want to act on the matter, and the lotter wan to act on the matter, and the lotter wan to act on the matter, and the lotter wan to act on the matter, and soon be ready to serve the public. Insurance to the amount of $15, coor was renewed on the city tug.
